DCB INDOOR LEAGUE 2011/12

The Derbyshire Cricket Board 6 a side Indoor Cricket Competition for 2010/11 commences at Derbyshire County Cricket Clubs Gateway Centre on Sunday October 2nd.

The centre will be available from 3pm with the first match to start at 3.30pm. It is essential that teams are changed and ready to play at the times indicated in the fixtures. Teams not ready to start may have two batting overs deducted for every five minutes time lost. Match fees will remain at £24 per team.

Spondon represented Derbyshire in the in the E.C.B. National Six A Side Club Championships.

They beat the Staffordshire side Whitmore C.C. by 5 wickets in the play off round before losing to Blaydon C.C.of Durham in the Northern Area Finals at the Gateway Centre.

Lullington have withdrawn from this year's competition with Quarndon making a return to replace them in the Indoor League. This has resulted in some rearrangements in the two

The Laws of cricket (2000code 2nd Edition-2003 shall apply, together with the experimental rule and conditions laid down by the England & Wales Cricket Board for recreational cricket for the proceeding season, with the exception of the following regulations.

1.1. Team shall consist of six players each, to include a properly attired wicket keeper.

1.2. Each match shall consist of one innings per team.

1.3. Each innings shall consist of a maximum of nine six ball overs for league matches. Twelve six ball overs per team for matches in the cup competition. A team shall not be permitted to declare its innings closed.

1.4. No more than 3 overs shall be bowled by an individual. In calculating each individuals accrued number of overs, part of an over shall be deemed to be a full over.

1.5. Two batsmen shall be at the wicket at all times during an innings. In the event of a team losing five wickets within the permitted overs, the last man shall continue batting, with the fifth man remaining at the wicket as a runner.

1.6. When a batsman reaches or passes a personal total of 25runs, he shall retire but may return to the crease on the departure of the fifth batsman. Two live batsmen shall be at the wicket until such time as the fifth wicket has fallen. The batsman shall retire again when he scores an additional 25runs on his return to the crease. The only other circumstance when a batsman may retire is through an inability to complete his/her innings through injury.

1.7. Any full pitched ball above waist height shall be called a 'No Ball'.

Any ball which passed or would have passed above shoulder height of the batsman standing upright at the crease, shall be called 'No Ball'. All the above calls shall be made by the bowlers end umpire, in consultation as necessary with the strikers end umpire.

1.8. Judging a wide. In addition to 25.1. the following will apply. The umpires are instructed to apply a very strict and consistent interpretation of this law, in order to prevent negative bowling. As a guide, if the ball passes outside the pads of the batsman in the normal guard position., a leg side wide shall be called.

2. Results

The team scoring the most runs shall be the winner. The winning team shall receive two points. If the scores of both teams are equal, the team losing the fewer wickets will be the winner. 3.2. A ball struck to hit the ceiling or one or more of the side or back walls shall count as one run, even if the ball subsequently hits the boundary wall. Two additional runs shall be scored if the batsmen complete a run. ( if the ball is struck to hit the ceiling or side or back wall and a batsman is then run out, one run shall be scored.)

PLAYING CONDITIONS

3.3. Two runs shall be scored if the striker plays the ball and it does not hit a wall direct and the batsmen complete a run.

3.4. A bye shall count as one run if the ball hit's a wall; a leg bye shall count as one run if the ball hit's a wall, in each case if the batsmen complete a run, two additional runs shall be scored.

3.5. Two byes or leg byes shall be scored if the batsmen complete a run without the ball hitting a wall.

3.6. No Ball.

3.6.1. If the batsmen do not run when a 'no ball' is called, a penalty of one run shall be credited under extras. If the ball hit's the ceiling, side or back wall then an additional one run shall be credited under extras.

3.6.2. If the batsman does not strike the ball and completes a run, an additional two runs shall be credited under extras. This shall apply even though the ball hit's the ceiling, a side or back wall.

3.6.3. If the striker hit's a 'No Ball' the number of runs resulting as specified above shall be added to his score, plus the penalty in addition.

3.7 Wide.

3.7.1. If a 'Wide Ball' is called a penalty of one run shall be credited under extras. If the ball hit's the ceiling, a side or back wall, then an additional one run shall be scored under extras.

3.7.2. Two runs shall be credited under extras for every run completed by the batsmen, plus the penalty in addition.

3.7.3. The following rule will apply to all Division 2 matches:- When a wide is called during the first 8 overs 3 penalty runs will be awarded and no extra ball will be bowled. Additional runs

May be scored as described in 3.7.1 & 3.7.2

An extra ball will be bowled for all wide balls called in the 9th over of each innings.

3.8. Overthrows.

An overthrow hitting any wall shall count as one run to the batsman. ( The batsmen shall not change ends) If the ball lodges in any form of apparatus, or goes out of the court, the batsmen shall be allowed only one run between wickets, after which the ball becomes 'Dead'.

3.9. No runs shall be scored if the batsman is caught out off the walls or ceiling.

4. Methods of Dismissal.

Apart from the normal methods of dismissal contained in the laws of cricket, the following variations shall apply.

4.1. The batsman shall be out caught by a fielder, if the ball hit's the ceiling, or any wall except the boundary wall, providing the ball has not touched the floor.

4.2. The last not out batsman shall be out if the non-striker running with him is run out.

4.3. The batsman or the non striker shall be given not out if the ball rebounds from a wall or ceiling and hit's the wicket without being touched by a fielder.
